People I will or might know at secondary school

People from my primary school, people from clubs I attend, friends from other schools, siblings, friends' siblings, other people in other year groups, adults (teacher / staff). OR How will I get to know people before I start secondary school?