

'BI VISIBILITY DAY IS HERE TO SAY YOU'RE NOT ALONE'

MARCUS MORGAN

Some people think bisexuality is mythical, Marcus disagrees even though he's a magician. He came out as gay in his teens and as bisexual in his twenties. He thinks it's easy for bisexual people to feel alone because society says it's rare. It isn't. Since finding the bisexual community he's become a Stonewall Role Model and set up the UK's only bisexual cabaret night "CaBiRet". He campaigns with The Bisexual Index to spread the word that being bi is valid, positive, and something to be proud of. Being bisexual is liberating and the bisexual community is empowering.

Every year on 23 September, Bi Visibility Day celebrates bi people across the globe, while recognising the work still required to make biphobia a thing of the past and to put bi visibility on the agenda.

Bi refers to an emotional and/or sexual orientation towards more than one gender. At Stonewall we're proud to work with lots of inspirational bi people and share their stories to achieve acceptance without exception.
