

'BI PEOPLE OF FAITH EXIST AND YOU DON'T HAVE TO HIDE TO BE ACCEPTED.'

ZAC SNAPE

Zac is a bi trans man and a maths student at the University of Sheffield. He grew up in Suffolk with his parents and four siblings where he attended Roman Catholic schools. When he first came out at school, he was supported by teachers and the school chaplain who helped him to talk through and reconcile his sexuality and trans identity with his faith. He has found acceptance and support in both LGBT+ and Catholic groups at his University and has been involved in student activism improving the lives of LGBT+ students throughout the UK.

Every year on 23 September, Bi Visibility Day celebrates bi people across the globe, while recognising the work still required to make biphobia a thing of the past and to put bi visibility on the agenda.

Bi refers to an emotional and/or sexual orientation towards more than one gender. At Stonewall we're proud to work with lots of inspirational bi people and share their stories to achieve acceptance without exception.

Visit www.stonewall.org.uk for more information and resources.