

BROOK RSR LESSON EXAMPLE: GROUP AGREEMENT

- ✓ We can be open about our thoughts and feelings but we won't talk about our own personal lives or talk about other students
- ✓ We will show everyone respect and not embarrass them or make fun of them in class or outside
- ✓ We will not assume we know what people think and feel or what's going on in their lives, we accept that everyone is an individual
- ✓ We will all take part and get involved in the lessons but we have the right to pass on an activity
- ✓ We will listen to each other
- ✓ We can ask the teacher any questions (nothing personal though!)
- ✓ We will try to use the correct language and not slang words; if we don't know what the right word is we can ask
- ✓ We can ask for help and support outside class if we need to
- ✓ We won't share the details of our discussions and who said what
- ✓ We will make it fun!
