

Preventing and challenging extremism through PSHE education:
Resources to support teaching

Quality Assured Resources

Addressing extremism and radicalisation lesson plans

A series of four lesson plans for key stage 4 with a specific focus on addressing extremism and radicalisation of all kinds, from the PSHE Association, commissioned by Medway Public Health Directorate (available on USB)

<https://www.pshe-association.org.uk/curriculum-and-resources/resources/addressing-extremism-and-radicalisation-lesson>

Trust Me by Childnet

Three lessons for key stage 3 pupils designed to help young people to think critically about what they see online.

<http://www.childnet.com/resources/trust-me>

The Great Get Together Activity Pack

The Jo Cox Foundation and PSHE Association resources containing activities which celebrate similarities and differences.

<https://www.greatgettogether.org/partners/schools/>

Remembering Srebrenica

A set of six lesson plans and materials created in conjunction with the PSHE Association which aim to explore how small acts of discrimination and prejudice can fuel community divisions.

<http://www.srebrenica.org.uk/education-zone-secondary/>

PSHE Association Resources for Members Only

Scheme of work planning toolkit for key stages 3 and 4: A comprehensive toolkit to support PSHE coordinators to plan their secondary programme.

<https://www.pshe-association.org.uk/curriculum-and-resources/resources/pshe-scheme-work-planning-toolkit-key-stages-3-and>

Handling sensitive or controversial issues through PSHE: A short guidance document offering tips on how to implement ground rules, discuss starting points, consider distancing techniques and more.

<https://www.pshe-association.org.uk/curriculum-and-resources/resources/handling-sensitive-or-controversial-issues-through>

Top tips for choosing PSHE education resources: Guidance on how to choose suitable resources for challenging areas of PSHE education.

<https://www.pshe-association.org.uk/curriculum-and-resources/resources/top-tips-choosing-pshe-education-resources>

Resource Portals

Educate against Hate

This website gives teachers, parents and school leaders practical advice and information on protecting children from extremism and radicalisation.

www.educateagainsthate.com

Counter Extremism: Narratives and Conversations (LGfL)

This website from London Grid for Learning (available to London schools) explores the narratives behind extremist doctrines from experts in the field.

www.counterextremism.lgfl.org.uk

Additional Resources

Hammersmith and Fulham Prevent resources

A set of 2 lessons for key stage 2 and 5 lessons for key stage 4 by Hammersmith and Fulham Council, created to support schools to meet the Prevent duty. Powerpoint materials are provided where relevant.

<https://www.lbhf.gov.uk/children-and-young-people/schools-and-colleges/school-staff-zone/prevent-and-schools/prevent-and-schools-resources-and-lesson-plans>

The Respect Programme

A suite of 5 lesson plans aimed at years 8, 9 and 10. The materials include video stimulus on topics such as stereotypes.

<http://therespectprogramme.org.uk/>

Where's the Line?

'Where's the Line?' is an online resource using comic strips as a stimulus for discussion. There is a charge for the licence for this material. A free demo is available.

<http://www.wherestheline.co.uk/>

Celebrating Us (LGfL – available to London schools only)

A resource for key stages 2 and 3 which looks at issues relating to cultural diversity and identity, rights, roles and responsibilities, online safety and good citizenship.

<https://www.lgfl.net/learning-resources/summary-page/celebrating-us>

Background Reading

- DfE Prevent duty guidance
- Home Office/DfE social media briefing
- UNESCO a teacher's guide to the prevention of violent extremism
- Learning together to be safe - aimed at colleges