

IF ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR IS HAPPENING:

- Consider how this could affect others.
- If pressured to join in, say no firmly and your true friends should understand.
- Remember that you can walk away.
- If you are with a group involved in ASB you could end up receiving the same punishment.

HELP AND ADVICE

WHAT IS ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR ?

Anti-social behaviour (ASB) is any behaviour which causes or is likely to cause harassment, alarm or distress to one or more people:

- HARASSMENT – continued unwanted or annoying actions, including threats and demands.
- ALARM – A sudden fear caused by the threat of danger.
- DISTRESS – Suffering, pain or worry.

EXAMPLES OF ASB

Anti-social behaviour can come in lots of different forms but can include;

- Graffiti
- Littering
- Fighting
- Drinking alcohol and taking drugs
- Throwing objects
- Cycling dangerously / inconsiderately
- Cherry knocking / knock and run
- Intimidating and annoying behaviour
- Setting fires

ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR CAN TURN INTO CRIMINAL BEHAVIOUR.

You can still get into trouble with the police for ASB.

Anti-Social behaviour is often picked by residents across the county as one of the things that really affects their lives.

IT MAKES PEOPLE FEEL:

- Anxious and on edge
- Frightened to go out
- Unsafe in their home
- That their children are not safe
- Like they want to move house
- Like it will never end
