

Resource Sheet D: Scenarios for Restorative Conversations

Remember to swap 'you' for 'I' – talk about how 'I felt' rather than what 'You did'.

Say what happened

Share how it made you feel

Ask what you would like to be different

1. Kareem is reading a book when his brother walks past him and knocks it out of his hands. The book falls to the floor, and he loses his place.
2. Claire keeps calling Nicole a cry-baby and teases her about the clothes she wears.
3. Max and Carlos had a big argument before the summer holidays, because Max wouldn't let Carlos join in with the football game at the park. They have moved on to secondary school and have been put in the same class.
4. George keeps using Phoebe's new pen without asking and leaving the lid off it.
5. Lucas never listens to Alex's point of view...
6. Izzie is always bossing Charlie around and insisting he does what they say.
7. Elina never stops talking in class when her friends are trying to work. Now she has started poking Noor when she is trying to write and pushing her in the line.
8. Hashem keeps calling Adham a chicken because he won't join in.
